Allied World's Financial Institutions team provides a full range of insurance products to clients across the globe, protecting businesses and their management against financial loss. With a beneficial dual platform in place, business is written on behalf of both the company and of Lloyd's Syndicate 2232.

The underwriting team is vastly experienced with extensive knowledge of the insurance market, business classes and geographic regions. A disciplined and long-term underwriting approach is the strategy adopted, and it has resulted in Allied World being regarded as a committed insurance partner within the industry. Claims are serviced in-house, by highly qualified claims practitioners who possess excellent knowledge and deliver exemplary service levels. The financial strength, in-depth experience and commitment to service, all combine to make Allied World a prominent player in the FI space.
