Management Liability is a specialty of Allied World's Syndicate 2232. We know the challenges and the protection that's necessary and specific to your clients' industry. In today's challenging business environment, management decisions made today can come back and haunt your clients in the future. Heightened scrutiny from customers, regulators, investors/donors, shareholders, employees and other stakeholders leaves little room for error. Of all the decisions a management team can make, perhaps the most critical is making sure that they have comprehensive management liability protection from a trusted and secure provider.
