

FORCEFIELD®:
KIDNAP & RANSOM/EXTORTION COVERAGEADDED ELEMENT OF PROTECTION:

As globalization has driven organizations and individuals to compete and be active in unfamiliar and less-developed countries and regions, there has been a marked increase in security-related risks and events. To help mitigate these risks, policyholders purchasing or renewing qualifying insurance coverage receive access to an independent, highly regarded global security services provider.

Insureds receive a range of proactive intelligence services including web-based travel security information with daily news briefs and security alerts sent each business weekday. Highly trained security professionals are also available 24/7 via a state of the art crisis management center to provide immediate advice, response and negotiations support on security related threats – critical emergency assistance from experienced professionals when it matters most.
