THE PROGRAM MANAGER

Wright Specialty is Allied World's exclusive program administrator for grocers and supermarket business. Wright Specialty Insurance provides property and casualty insurance programs and risk management solutions that meet the specialized needs of public and private universities, colleges and K-12 schools; government entities; and the food service industry. Their specialty insurance programs are effective because their underwriters, claim adjusters, loss prevention specialists, and brokers and agents understand the unique property and casualty risks you face in your changing and challenging world. Wright Specialty knows how important safety is in education today and how to help public entities manage risk in difficult economic times. In addition, they understand the competitive pressures taking place in the food service industry.
