

SLIP, TRIP AND FALL PREVENTION RESOURCES BY NFSI

Slips, trips and falls are among the leading causes of injuries and fatalities across multiple industries, including construction, real estate, security, hospitality, healthcare and manufacturing. Education and training are important safety measures for prevention.

Access to Expertise in Slip, Trip and Fall Prevention.

As part of our ongoing commitment to providing comprehensive risk management solutions, Allied World has partnered with the National Floor Safety Institute (NFSI) – a leading authority in the field of slip, trip and fall prevention. Allied World policyholders can now access a complimentary web portal for slip, trip and fall policies and training programs, an overview of select American National Standards Institute (ANSI) consensus industry standards, supplemental educational materials, and expert slip, trip and fall advice via phone or email.

To request access to this complimentary web portal, please contact riskmanagement@awacservices.com.

NFSI can help insureds to:

- Reduce exposures and costs associated with slips, trips and falls.
- Stay informed on the latest nationally adopted industry consensus standards.
- Train employees on slip, trip and fall prevention.
