

EXCESS CASUALTY

Risk management is a core element of Allied World's approach to specialty insurance. An effective risk management/loss control program is essential to help mitigate losses during the coverage term and beyond. As such, Allied World offers a number of risk management and loss control services to policyholders purchasing or renewing qualifying insurance coverage.

LOSS CONTROL RESOURCES

- Fleet Safety: Access to a full best practices review, on-road, online or classroom training, National Safety Council (NSC) distracted driver training, train-the-trainer certifications, vehicle monitoring 24-hour decal programs, driver hazard perception evaluations, Motor Vehicle Record (MVR) continuous monitoring and vehicle telematics, including driver coaching.
- 24/7 Web-Based Training: UL's PureSafety on Demand® provides access to a single source, web-based training library offering over 700 discounted workplace health and safety courses coupled with an automated tracking, reporting and certification process to simplify and centralize training management.
- Slip, Trip & Fall Prevention: Policyholders can access the National Floor Safety Institute's complimentary web portal for slip, trip and fall policies and training programs, an overview of select American National Standards Institute (ANSI) consensus industry standards, supplemental educational materials and expert advice.
- Drone Business Solutions: Whether your company has an existing drone program or is planning to develop one in the near future, policyholders can receive a complimentary consultation and will have access to discounted UAS services with DataWing, a manned and unmanned (UAS) aircraft service provider led by former U.S. Air Force fighter pilots.
- Violence on Your Premises Resources (Including Active Shooter): A broad spectrum of resources, including security assessments, crisis intervention training classes, educational webinars, web-based courses and state and federal preparedness online tools.
- Educational Portal: Complimentary risk management resources, including advisories, alerts, checklists, white papers, webinars and best practices materials.
