

AWARD WINNING

Insurance Asia News Announces Awards for Excellence 2020 Winner of the 2020 Young Underwriter of the Year Debbie Chan, AVP Professional Lines Allied World Singapore

Congratulations to Debbie Chan on being named Insurance Asia News' Young Underwriter of the Year for 2020.

Debbie joined our Financial Lines team in Singapore in 2014 as a senior underwriter and has since taken on the role as AVP for Professional Lines. With over 10 years' experience in the insurance industry Debbie has played a large role in helping Allied World deliver sustainable growth in its Professional Lines portfolio in Singapore.

This award recognises young underwriters that show an in-depth knowledge of the market, are able to work across a wide range of complex portfolios and who maintain a high level of professionalism and responsiveness when working with brokers and clients.

When announcing the award, Insurance Asia News said, "This is a significant win and confirmation of the excellent work Debbie has put in place with Allied World's brokers and partners for her professional lines book."

Jacquelyn Goh, Country Manager and Head of Distribution for APAC said, "We are proud that Debbie has been recognised for her efforts. She is a bright shining star – even when faced with a challenge, she sparkles. Over the last 12 months, Debbie has worked hard to collaborate with over 650 brokers and partners in Singapore, focusing on building relationships and displaying a positive attitude in the management of her Professional Lines portfolio."

For a full list of award winners and judges visit <https://insuranceasianews.com/awards/awards-for-excellence-2020/>

From the left: Jacquelyn Goh (SVP, Country Manager, APAC), Debbie Chan (AVP Professional Lines Singapore), Carolyn Shreeve (CUO)