

Management Liability Protection for Private Companies and Not-For-Profit Organizations

When considering the many factors that can adversely impact a company or not-for-profit organization, finding a solution that neutralizes associated risk is critical to ensuring continued growth and success. Allied World's ForceField® is that solution. ForceField empowers clients to combine coverages and critical risk management services according to each client's unique management liability formula, all with the convenience of a single application and a single underwriter.

Essential Elements of Coverage

Clients have the ability to purchase an entire package of comprehensive coverages or combine only the coverages that are essential for their needs.

Policyholders can select separate limits for each coverage section, share limits among certain coverages, or choose a combination of separate and shared limits.

Worldwide Primary and Excess coverage is available.

With ForceField®, each coverage option offers the optimal mix of service and protection.

Directors & Officers Liability:

Comprehensive management liability protection that contemplates the many exposures organizations face. Includes Strategic Reponse®, which provides 24/7 access to public relations resources for advice and guidance in the event of a crisis.

Employment Practices Liability:

Coverage no employer should be without. Offers protection against claims made by current, former or prospective employees.

Fiduciary Liability: Comprehensive protection for a breach of fiduciary duty in connection with an employee benefit plan. Includes broad definitions of both Plan and Insureds.

Crime Coverage*: Considers reimbursement for losses due to theft, forgery or fraud, including computer and credit card fraud. Insureds select their level of protection depending on their specific needs.

Employed Lawyers Coverage*: Professional liability for the entire in-house counsel staff from allegations of errors or omissions, breaches of duty, or misleading statements in the performance of legal services. This protection is designed to give legal staff the confidence they need to perform their tasks.
